PRESENTATION

The Department of Industrial Chemistry, Faculty of Science and Technology, University of Biskra organizes from 03 December 2023 study day on materials: synthesis and energy applications

OBJECTIVES OF THE DAYS

The purpose of this day is to encourage Phd students and researchers to present their scientific work in the following research areas:

- Synthesis, characterization and application of materials and bio-materials.
- Synthesis and characterization of catalysts for energy applications
- Treatment and recovery of different types of organic and inorganic wastes.

TOPICS

Topic 01: Materials for energy and Bio-materials.

Topic 02: Catalysts and Bio Catalysts for energy application.

Topic 03: Recovery and recycling of organic and inorganic wastes.
