Messieurs les présidents
des Conférences Régionales des Universités

Objet : Académie Arabe-Allemande des Sciences (AGYA)/
Appel à candidatures.

P.J. : Un (01).

Suite au courrier émanant de l'Ambassade d'Algérie à Berlin, relatif à l'appel à candidatures, j'ai l'honneur de vous informer que l'Académie Arabe-Allemande des Sciences AGYA (Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities) vient de publier sur son site web un appel à candidatures, pour renouvellement de ses membres au titre de l'année 2017.

L'académie créée en 2013 à Berlin, AGYA est une académie qui regroupe une cinquantaine de chercheurs affiliés à des universités arabes et allemandes. S'inscrivant dans la perspective de renforcer la coopération scientifique entre l'Allemagne et le monde arabe, cette académie octroie des bourses à ses membres, finance leurs projets de recherche et leur permet d'accéder à un réseau académique d'excellence, ce qui profite aux institutions d'origine auxquelles ces chercheurs sont affiliés.

Vingt-cinq (25) chercheurs arabes sont membres d'AGYA dont deux algériens, à savoir :

- M. Fayçal DJEFFAL, Ingénieur en Informatique à l'Université de Batna.

- M. Fayçal DJEFFAL, Ingénieur en Informatique à l'Université de Batna.
- M. Samir LOUNIS, Physicien à l'Université Allemande d'Aix-la-Chapelle (Aachen).

Les candidats intéressés doivent satisfaire aux critères d'éligibilité ci-après :

- Etre un chercheur en début de carrière et travaillant dans un domaine des sciences naturelles, techniques, sociales ou humaines ;
- Jouir de qualification avérées dans son domaine de spécialisation ;
- Etre affilié à une université ou à un centre de recherche ;
- Les titres de doctorat (pour les titulaires de ce diplôme) doivent être datés de trois ans au moins et de 10 ans au plus ;
- Une parfaite maîtrise de l'anglais (langue de travail de l'Académie).

Le dossier de candidature est constitué des pièces suivantes :

- Un formulaire à télécharger du site web : www.agya.info;
- Un curriculum vitae, incluant la liste des publications ;
- Une lettre de motivation ;
- Deux lettres de références académiques.

Les candidatures doivent être transmises sous format PDF à l'adresse électronique : www@bbaw.de, et ce, au plus tard le 02 avril 2017.

Bonne réception

Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities

Call for Membership Applications

Application Deadline: 2 April 2017

The Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities (AGYA) at the Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities is pleased to announce its Call for Membership 2017.

AGYA promotes research cooperation among outstanding early-career researchers from all disciplines who are affiliated with a research institution in Germany or any Arab country. The academy provides partnership-building opportunities and funding to support the innovative projects of its members in various fields of research as well as in science policy and education. More than 50 members – in equal number Arab and German scholars – have been selected to join AGYA since 2013. They have realized joint projects and initiatives in the framework of six interdisciplinary working groups: Arab and German Education; Common Heritage and Common Challenges; Energy, Water and Environment; Health and Society; Innovation; and Transformation.

Benefits:

- AGYA offers its members a unique opportunity to take an active part in the life of the multidisciplinary academy and supports them to implement their own ideas, visions and creative projects in the framework of Arab-German research cooperation.
- AGYA membership is granted for up to 5 years followed by a membership in a lifelong alumni network of excellent researchers. Furthermore, AGYA connects its members with outstanding research institutions in Germany and the Arab countries and facilitates collaboration opportunities. Therefore, AGYA members exclusively benefit from access to an academic network of excellence.
- AGYA provides funding to realize innovative research projects within its working groups and in joint projects between Arab and German members.
- Members meet regularly to discuss, develop and implement joint research initiatives on cutting-edge issues. Travel expenses for AGYA workshops and conferences are covered for all members.
- AGYA offers a range of training opportunities to enhance the academic careers as well as the interdisciplinary and intercultural skills of its members and promotes them as ambassadors of science and culture.

Requirements:

- Successful candidates are expected to have a proven record of research excellence in their field of specialization.
- Candidates with strong potential for academic leadership will be given priority.
- Membership requires active engagement. As AGYA is a working academy, successful candidates are expected to dedicate a significant amount of time to AGYA activities and the funded projects they implement in the framework of the academy.
- Commitment to realizing interdisciplinary research projects in collaboration with AGYA members and other partners is essential.
- Elected members are required to attend the next annual conference of AGYA to be held in Amman, Jordan in the second half of October 2017.

Eligibility:

- Early-career researchers from any field of the Life Sciences, Natural Sciences, Humanities, Social Sciences, Technical Sciences and the Arts are eligible to apply.
- Applicants must be affiliated with a university or a research institution in Germany or any Arab country (Algeria, Bahrain, Comoros, Djibouti, Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Mauritania, Morocco, Oman, Palestinian Territories, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, Tunisia, United Arab Emirates and Yemen).
- Applicants should be early-career researchers. At the time of application, the candidate's doctoral degree has preferably been conferred upon him/her no less than three and no longer than ten years.
- Applicants must have full command of English, the working language of AGYA. No knowledge of German or Arabic is necessary.

Application:

Interested applicants are invited to submit the following documents:

- Application form, to be downloaded at: www.agya.info
- CV, including a list of publications
- Letter of motivation
- Two letters of academic references

The documents should be submitted via e-mail as a single PDF file to: agya@bbaw.de

Deadline for receipt of applications is Sunday, 2 April 2017
